The Premium Solution for Parking Systems

The Platform Covering with a Distinguished Profile

Pulling into and out of a parking space thousands of times. Wet conditions, cracks, aggressive salt water and corrosive automobile fluids. The years have a way of taking their toll on a parking space.

We developed our AluLongLife platform covering to master exactly these kinds of conditions. This aluminum profile tackles these everyday rigors backed by the strength of premium quality – looking just as good after many years as it does on the very first day.

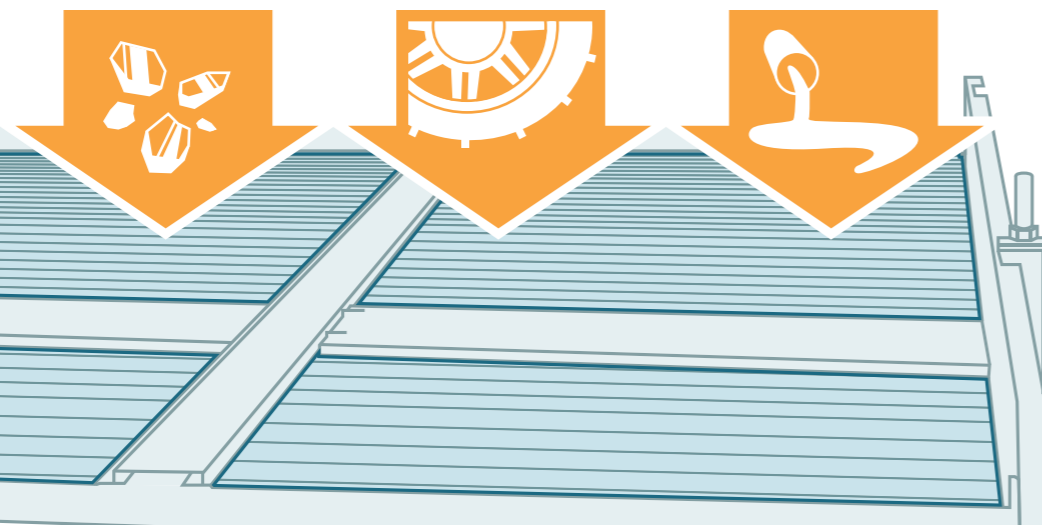

Don't miss your chance to combine this high-grade fixture to any new or existing KLAUS Multiparking system and extend its lifespan considerably. And don't forget: We provide a full 12-year guarantee on all of our AluLongLife profiles!

AluLongLife keeps its high-quality appearance over many years. After all, this covering is ...

... Resistant to corrosion, e. g. from salt-water or battery acid.

... Robust against mechanical impacts such as cracks or spikes.

... Reliable when it comes to withstanding the toughest dirt and grime.

Your AluLongLife Advantages:

- Low maintenance with a covering that can be cleaned quickly and easily
- User-friendly with excellent personal and vehicle accessibility
- Enduring value through the use of non-rusting, long-lasting materials
- Aesthetically pleasing with a very attractive design
- Nearly 100 % flush, keeping the garage completely free of obstructions
- A high-quality, perfect addition to all KLAUS Multiparking systems – available for retrofitting as well

Take it from our customers:

“Five years ago, we decided to clean up our KLAUS double parker – and we were blown away! The AluLongLife covering is super easy to clean and today it still looks brand new!”

The Schumachers, Munich

“We just bought our first apartment – which includes an underground parking space. With its attractive design, AluLongLife is definitely doing its part to retain the value of our property.”

H. Peters, Hamburg

“My apartment building has to be able to tend to the needs of many different people. That's why I wanted AluLongLife. It makes even moving around with a wheelchair no problem whatsoever.”

P. Wagner, Nuremberg
